Art Unit: 1618

Claims 20-42 are presented for examination.

The amendments and remarks filed on August 15, 2005 have been received and entered.

Claims 1-40 and 42 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112 first paragraph for the reasons set forth on pages 2-4 of the office action of December 28, 2004.

Applicant's arguments and remarks have been carefully considered, but are not deemed to be persuasive. The instant specification fails to provide information allowing the skilled artisan to ascertain the conditions associated with apoptosis in the eye or conditions associated with retinal cell disorders. In the instant case only a limited number of diseases are set forth, therefore failing to provide sufficient working examples. It is noted that the examples are neither exhaustive, nor define the class of disorders required. The pharmaceutical art is unpredictable requiring each embodiment to be individually assessed for effectiveness. The instant claims read on all the conditions associated with ocular apoptosis, necessitating an exhaustive for the embodiment suitable to practice the claimed invention. Applicant fails to provide information sufficient to practice the claimed invention, absent undue experimentation.

Claim 41 at present time is considered to be allowable.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
